

RE Skills Progression.

Year	Key Skills
N	Continuing developing positive attitudes about the differences between people
R	Understand that some places are special to some people in their community. Recognise that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways.
1	Demonstrate an awareness that other people have knowledge. Start to show respect through their actions (e.g. following rules) Explain their own views politely Demonstrate an understanding of right and wrong Show awareness that different behaviour might be needed in a religious setting
2	Demonstrate a respect for other people's knowledge Demonstrate respect for others (e.g. choosing to help others) Listen courteously (take turns) Understand the concept of right and wrong and accept that other people and other faiths may view this differently Demonstrate awareness of the rules for behaviour in a religious setting.
3	Start to show an awareness of other people's insights Consistently show respect for others through their manners and actions Verbalise someone else's opinion, including when it differs from their own Explain some other people's and other faith's views on right and wrong Start to modify their behaviour to follow the rules of the religious settings
4	Show respect for other people's insights Demonstrate good manners and start to cope with and/or compensate for when people do not reciprocate Share and discuss opinion, comparing and contrasting politely where appropriate Explore their own and others' views on morality Start to modify everyday behaviour to respect and/or include friends from different religious backgrounds.
	Show an interest in other people's insights

5	Demonstrate good manners and sensitively deal with others' lack of manners Explain how people can show respect for other religions (opinions) Discuss moral dilemmas, referring to faith and culture, including areas that are considered right by some and wrong by others Modify everyday behaviour to respect/ include peers and strangers.
6	Explain the difference between knowledge and insights Start managing other people's insensitivity un appropriate and courteous ways. Explain how and why people might decide not to show respect or tolerance for other people's religions, faiths, and opinions. Make reasoned judgments about morality and reassess their own values in response Show an interest in and explain, how diverse communities and societies function