

Wednesday 8th October

Morning Challenge

Try to make these sentences even more interesting.

1. The polar bear went to the beach.

2. It was his first holiday.

3. He saw the sea and sand.

E.g. It was his first hot, summer holiday and he felt so excited!

Wednesday 8th October

TBAT: spell words with the long /ur/ sound spelt ear.

ear elephant help express pursue surrender
re

08.10.25

Times tables

Bingo!

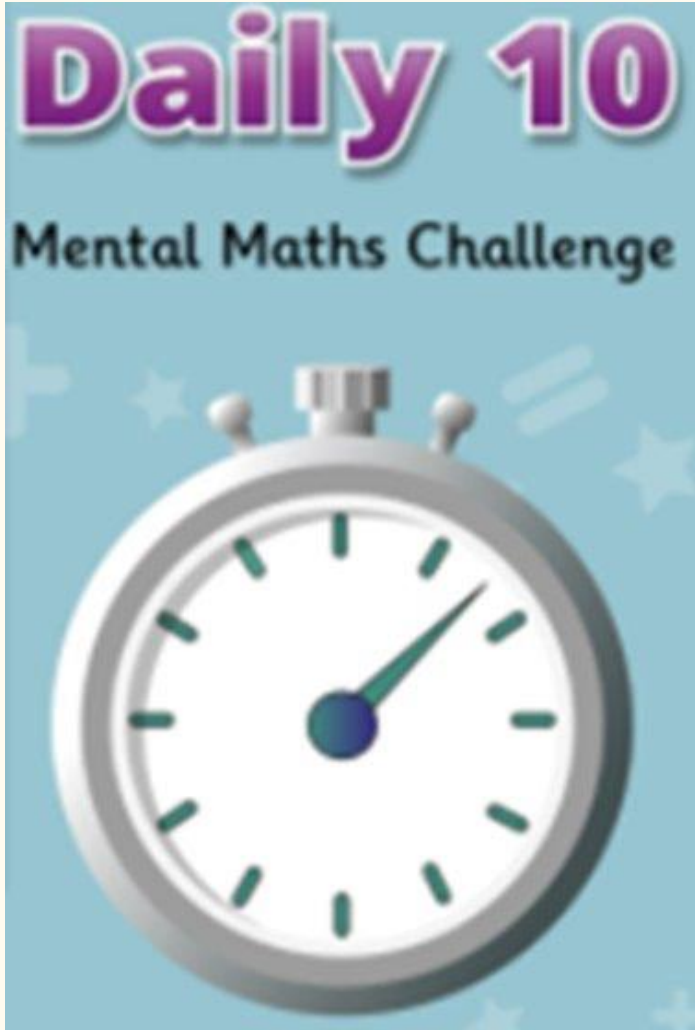

Write 6 multiples of 5 on your whiteboard.

I will call out a 5 times table sum out and if the answer is on your board, then cross it out. The person that has all 6 numbers crossed out first needs to shout out BINGO!

Winner will receive 5 dojos!

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

Daily 10 - Mental Maths Challenge - Topmarks

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.

08.10.25

TBAT: identify faces of 3D shapes.

3 in 3

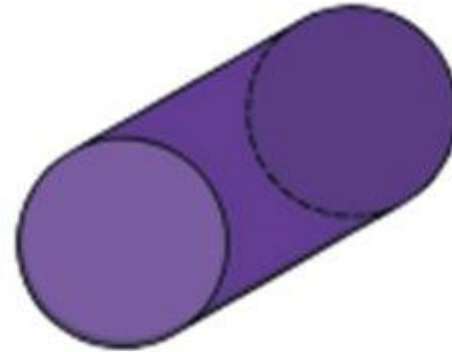

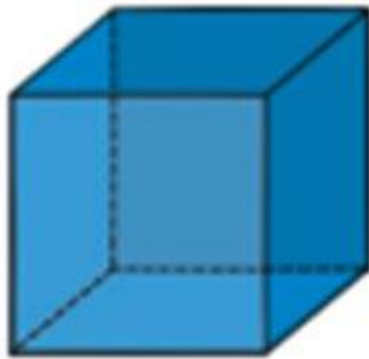

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

Partner talk

How many vertices do these shapes have? How many edges do they have?

Challenge: Think of a 3D shape that does not have any vertices.

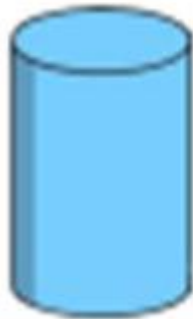

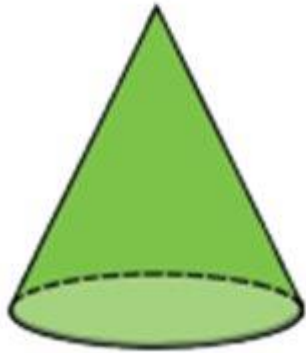

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

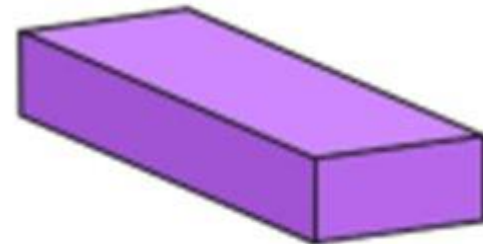

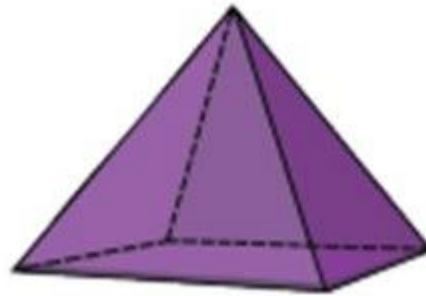

INDIVIDUAL

How many edges and vertices do each of these shapes have?

Blue

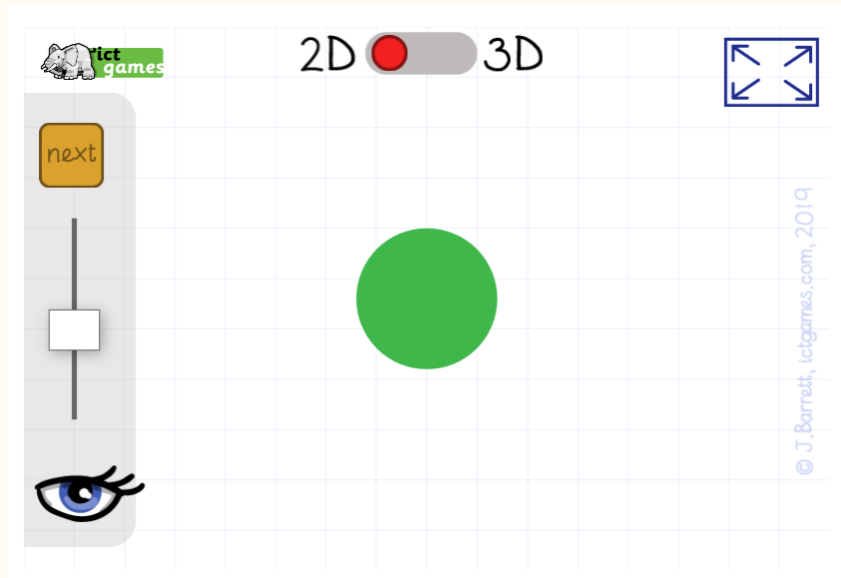

Green

Challenge – Find a shape in the classroom that is a cuboid.

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

Shifting Shapes

Identifying 3D Shapes Game | Dino Eggs | Mindly Games

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

Independent - Stick the 3D shapes in your book. Write down the number of vertices and edges they each have.

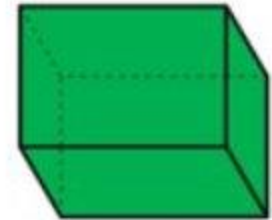

RP: My shape has 8 vertices and all of the faces are the same shape. What 3D shape do I have?

challenge

9b. True or false?

A cuboid has 6 vertices.

If false, how many vertices, edges and faces does a cuboid have?

08.10.25

TBAT: identify edges and vertices on 3D shapes.

Mastery

8a. Use $>$, $<$ or $=$ to complete the statements below.

number of vertices on a cube

number of faces on a cube

number of edges on a cylinder

number of vertices on a sphere

Mastery with greater depth

Which shapes could be the odd one out? Think about edges, vertices and faces.

Explain your answer.

Wednesday 8th October
TBAT: write a harvest poem.

A boy and his dog, out in the sun,
Running and playing, having such fun.
With wagging tail and joyful bark,
They explore the world from dawn till dark.
Through fields and woods, they roam and run,
Sharing adventures, everyone.
A bond so strong, it warms the heart,
A boy and his dog, never to part.

3 in 3

1. When do the boy and his dog explore the world?
2. Where do they roam and run?
3. In the poem, what 'warms the heart'?

Wednesday 8th October
TBAT: write a harvest poem.

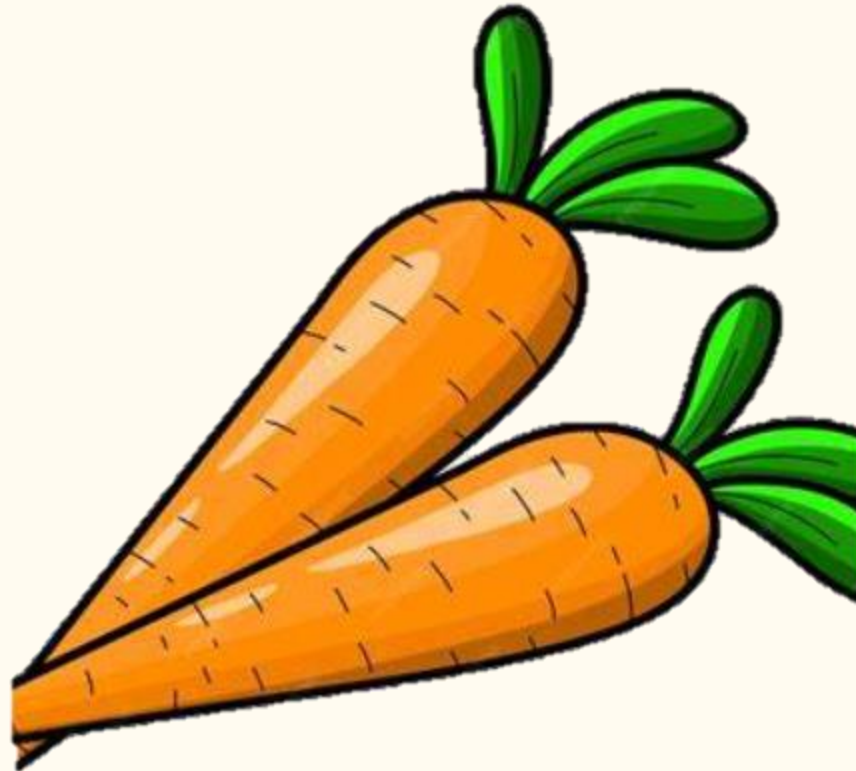

What is a rhyming couplet?

Where does a rhyming couplet sit in a poem?

Think of a rhyming word for both pea and berry.

Wednesday 8th October
TBAT: write a harvest poem.

Thinking time: how many words can you write on your whiteboard that rhyme. They must link to Harvest and carrots.

WAGOLL

A Carrot's Journey

Carrot seeds begin to sleep.

Raindrops tap and sunshine glows,
Underground, the carrot grows.

The farmer pulls with gentle might,
Orange roots come into sight!
They're washed and packed and sent away,
To shops and homes the very same day.

At the table, fresh and bright,
Carrots bring us pure delight!
In lunchboxes or in a stew,
They're sweet and crunchy, good for you!

Thank you, harvest, for this treat,
A crunchy, healthy veg to eat!

We are going to write the first three stanzas about the journey of a carrot.

Look at the word bank for rhyming pairs. Try to use these to help with your own poem.

| | | | | | | |
|---|---|--|---|--|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • plot • lot • hot • spot • not • got • forgot • brought | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • day • hay • play • stay • way • say • away • grey | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ground • found • sound • mound • around • bound | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • green • seen • bean • clean • between • mean | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • light • night • bright • sight • flight • might | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • bump • lump • jump • thump • stump | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • jar • far • star • car • bar |
| Example: We found the carrots in the plot, Dug them up— there were a lot! | Example: We worked all day in fields of hay, The carrots grew without delay! | Example: We dug into the soft, brown ground, And oh! The carrots that we found! | Example: The tops were leafy, bright, and green, The nicest ones we've ever seen! | Example: We picked them in the morning light, Orange roots so crisp and bright! | Example: We gave a tug, it gave a thump— Out came a carrot with a bump! | Example: We packed them in the family car, Then watched the sunset from afar. |

Shared Write:

We are going to write the stanzas about the journey of a carrot.

Title:

Thank you, harvest, for this treat,
A crunchy, healthy veg to eat!

Beneath the soil so dark and _____,
Carrot seeds begin to _____.
Raindrops tap and sunshine shines,
Helping roots grow in straight _____.
The farmer pulls with gentle _____,
Out pop carrots — what a _____!
They're washed and packed, then on their way,
To homes and shops that very _____.
At the table, fresh and _____,
Carrots bring us so much _____!
In lunchboxes or in a stew,
They're sweet and tasty, good for _____.
Thank you, harvest, for this _____ —
A healthy veg we love to _____!

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why do Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Keywords

Salat

the Muslim daily prayer, said five times a day

qiblah

the direction of the Ka'bah in Makkah, to which Muslims turn when praying

Makkah

the most holy place for Muslims, where the religion started

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

This is Noor.

Noor is a British Sunni Muslim who prays five times a day.

For Noor, praying is very special. It helps her feel close to Allah (God) and brings her into harmony with Him, filling her heart with peace.

Noor

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Noor explains what prayer means to her worldview.

Noor

Salat is the Arabic word for the daily prayers Muslims perform and it is the second pillar of Islam.

It is one of the most important things that Muslims do to show love and respect for Allah (God).

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Here are the five Salat that Muslims perform a day:

1. Fajr - before the sun rises: early morning
2. Dhuhr - when the sun is high in the sky: midday
3. Asr - in the afternoon
4. Maghrib - just after the sun sets: evening
5. Isha - at night, before bed

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Match the names of the daily Salat to their timings.

| | |
|---------|------------------|
| Fajr | in the afternoon |
| Dhuhr | evening |
| Asr | early morning |
| Maghrib | at night |
| Isha | midday |

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Muslims, like other religious people, pray to God, Allah. They can pray Salat in many places.

Salat in a mosque

Many Muslims pray Salat in a mosque because it is a special place to worship Allah (God) together.

It's where they can pray, listen to the Qur'an, and feel part of a big family of Muslims.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

prayer at home

Many Muslims also pray Salat at home because it is a peaceful place to worship Allah with their family.

It's where they can pray together, recite verses from the Qur'an and feel close to each other and to Allah (God).

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

praying outdoors

Although the mosque is a very special place for many Muslims to pray Salat, they can also pray at home or outside in open areas.

The most important thing is to make sure that they are clean and facing the direction of the qiblah in Makkah.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Rasool explains:

daily prayers

Shi'a Muslims are allowed to combine their five prayers into three prayer times, while most Sunni Muslims pray five times a day.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

turbah

Shi'a Muslims do a few different actions when they pray and they use a small stone, called a turbah, to touch their foreheads to during prayer.

Some Sunni Muslims perform Salat with their hands clasped ('qabd'), while Shi'a Muslims usually pray with their hands at their sides ('sadi').

Bottom image: A Sunni Muslim (left) and Shia Muslim (right) performing the Friday prayer in Tehran. By Fars Media Corporation, 2018, CC BY 4.0, <https://commons.wikimedia.org/w/index.php?curid=67487046>

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Muslims do wudu before they pray.

performing wudu

Wudu is a special way to get ready for Salat where Muslims wash certain parts of their body.

It helps Muslims to be clean and feel closer to Allah (God) before they pray.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Noor says that there is something very special about how Muslims pray Salat.

A map of Saudi Arabia

When Muslims pray Salat, they always face a city called Makkah, which is in Saudi Arabia.

It's a holy place for Muslims.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

the Ka'bah in Makkah

Facing the qiblah, which is the direction of prayer towards the Ka'bah in Makkah, is an important part of performing Salat for Muslims.

Wednesday 8th October

Q: How and why Muslims pray 5 times a day?

Rasool shares that many Muslims use a compass to help find the direction of the qiblah.

It shows that Salat is really important to Muslims, no matter where they are.

a compass

Wednesday 8th October

Harvest artwork

Wednesday 8th October

TBAT: understand how strength helps us in everyday life.

What is balance?

How could our balance be effected?

Get Set 4 PE - Lesson Plan -3 for Year 3 Fitness

Plank High 5's:

- A To develop strength we need to work our muscles. In 2s perform a plank and high 5 opposite hands together. One hand, then the other.
- B Explore high 5'ing with right hand twice, left hand twice. Right hand three times, left hand three times, and finally four times. Q: Which muscles are working?