What is Red Nose Day?

Red Nose Day is a day when people across Britain raise money for charities in the UK and around the world.

When Is Red Nose Day?

Red Nose Day is on 20th March 2026

Why Is Red Nose Day Important?

Money raised during Red Nose Day helps lots of different projects, including:

Providing reading books for children in community learning centres in Northern Uganda.

Training a preschool teacher in Africa.

Running a group to support visually impaired children.

Training a health volunteer to help improve the health, wellbeing and education of young children in Kenya.

Wear a Red Nose

Non-uniform day

RED NOSE DAY

IS ON ITS WAY...

LET'S TAKE OURSELVES

FUNNY

FOR MONEY!

On Friday 20 March,
our school is going to be daft,
have fun and raise cash to change
people's lives for the better.

To get us all in the mood, turn to the person sitting next to you and pull the funniest face you can!

THE POWER OF LAUGHTER

See! Laughter is good for us and for each other.

And on Red Nose Day, it also has the power to change lives in all sorts of brilliant ways.

Simply by being silly, we can raise money to support incredible organisations in the UK and across the world who help people get the essentials they need to survive. To eat, sleep and feel safe.

Projects like Skateistan in South Africa.

Let's watch a film to find out more.

MCKESHA'S STORY

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Skateistan is just one of hundreds of organisations supported by Red Nose Day. How else might the money we raise be used?

HELP FEED CHILDREN

£5

could help feed a child for a day at a community hub during school holidays in the UK, stopping them from going hungry.

A PLACE TO CALL HOME

£25

could provide a young person in the UK who has experienced homelessness with a starter pack, helping them to take the first steps towards thriving independently in a new home.

HELP FAMILIES GET BY

£100

could provide a week's worth of baby supplies for five families in the UK struggling to meet their basic needs.
