Partner work

On white boards

Come up with words to describe the chokey.

Think how it looks, how it would feel.

Friday 11th September

TBAT: write a setting description

The Chokey is a tiny, dark cupboard hidden inside the school. It is so small that there is hardly any room to move. The walls feel cold and rough and the air smells damp and dusty. Sharp nails poke out from the walls, making it look scary and uncomfortable.

Only a thin strip of light shines through the cracks in the door. Strange shadows dance across the walls, making the space seem even creepier. It is very quiet inside, except for the occasional creak and groan of the old building.

Standing in the Chokey makes people feel trapped and lonely. It is not a place where anyone wants to stay. The tiny cupboard feels gloomy, frightening and cold, like a place from a bad dream.

Designing a book

- Today you will be designing a book cover and a blurb for Matilda's floating books. You need to make it eye catching and something Miss Honey would love.

Think carefully about:

- Your colours
- The title of your book
- And the information on your book
